

Historic Districts

As of June 2008, Rockford had designated the following five areas as local historic districts:

1. Haight Village (area bounded by South Madison, Walnut and Kishwaukee Streets and the railroad tracks)
2. Indian Terrace (Indian Terrace south of the Armory, and including Beattie Park)
3. Garfield Avenue (600 through 900 blocks)
4. Brown's Hills/Knightsville (most of the area lying between North Second Street and the Scandinavian Cemetery, plus the four houses just north of the YMCA on the west side of North Second Street)
5. Northeast State & Main (201, 203 and 211 West State Street, plus 107 and 109 North Main Street)

In addition, five districts have been listed on the National Register of Historic Places. These are

1. East Rockford Historic District (East State Street from the Rock River up to and including the Faust Landmark plus about half a block in each direction on the cross streets)
2. Haight Village (generally the same area as the local district described above plus structures on the west side of Madison Street)
3. 7th Street Commercial District (generally those properties fronting on 7th Street from Charles Street to Keith Creek)
4. Barber-Colman Company Historic District (all 11 structures remaining on the Barber-Colman site on Rock Street)
5. West Downtown Rockford Historic District (generally follows an irregular boundary from Park Avenue as far south as Elm Street, and from the alley west of Church Street east to Wyman Street)
